Then transfer to your hotel for check-in & some relaxing time. Pick up for dinner at Lebanese Restaurant. Divani Acropolis Hotel 5***

Day 3 (18 Dec) Athens – Acropolis – Athens

(Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner)

After breakfast, we will depart to visit the Jewel of Athens; The Parthenon atop the Acropolis is one of the most famous Greece tourist attractions and in itself a sight-seeing spectacular (Built in 447 BC, the Parthenon has served as a temple, fortress, a church, a mosque and even as a powder magazine). Thereafter we have a hearty Lunch at a Halal Indian restaurant. Next we head to Monastiraki area and visit the Tzistarakis Mosque there (built in 1759 during the Ottoman rule, now transformed into a museum housing traditional Greek handicrafts [Tzami] and even columns from the Temple of Olympian Zeus) that overlooks the Monastiraki Square. Then we continue on foot to Ermou shopping street and Plaka area; the old part of Athens city, with its unique neoclassical houses and full of souvenir shops. Divani Acropolis Hotel 5***

Day 4 (19 Dec) Athens – Peloponnese

(Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner)

In the morning we head out to visit one of the first advanced civilizations on earth, the Homeric Mycenae of King Agamemnon at Argolida in Peloponnese area. After a short stop at Corinth Canal with its breath-taking view, we will visit the Ancient Epidaurus Theatre with its famous acoustics and well-preserved architecture. Enjoy local halal lunch, thereafter we drive to the beautiful city Nafplio, famous for its castles; Bourtzi - the Venetian small fortress standing on the rocky islet of Agioi Theodoroi and Palamidi Castle - In order to reach it you have to climb all of its 999 steps carved into the rock with a very rewarding view. (Aga Pasha Mosque) Enjoy a short coffee stop for some leisure time to stroll around and do some shopping in this picturesque city with dotted with well preserved neoclassical buildings or you can opt to enjoy a ride on the small city-tour-train. Then we drive over the Arcadia Mountains to Ancient Olympia Village for dinner & overnight. Hotel Amalia 4***

Day 5 (20 Dec) Peloponnese – Delphi

(Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner)

After a delicious breakfast, we start the tour by heading to the Archaeological Museum and the archaeological site of Ancient Olympia where the ancient Olympic stadium capable of 45000 seating capacity hosted the first Olympic Games in 776 B.C. (known for rekindling the Olympic flame using a parabolic mirror). After some free time for photo taking memorabilia, enjoy mouth-watering Halal Lunch at a local restaurant before we journey to Delphi. Overnight in Amalia area. Delphi hotel 4***

Day 6 (21 Dec) Delphi

(Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner)

We begin the day by visiting Delphi Archaeological Museum then proceed to have our Halal Lunch. Then we will have some exciting fun skiing at Arachova on Parnassos Mountain!!! Parnassos Ski Centre is a ski centre in Greece located at Mount Parnassus near Delphi. The ski centre is located at two main areas, Kelaria and Fterrolakas. It consists of 19 pistes with a total piste length of 36 km and the longest run is 4 km. The highest altitude of the pistes is at 2,250m and the lowest at 1,600m. Return to hotel for dinner and overnight. Delphi hotel 4***

Day 7 (22 Dec) Delphi – Athens

(Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner)

After a hearty breakfast, we begin our journey back to beautiful Athens. Journey will take 6 hrs with 2 stops. Once we arrive in Athens, we proceed directly for a wholesome dinner and overnight. Metropolitan Hotel 5***

Day 8 (23 Dec) Athens (3 Islands Pleasure Cruise)

(Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner)

We begin the day early in the morning to enjoy a scenic cruise aboard the well-known Epirotiki Line Cruise of Greece. The ship departs at 0815 am from the port of Marina Flisvos, Athens and will sail for Aegina. Once there we can visit a bustling fish market, floating fruit market and try Aegina's famous pistachio nuts. Aegina is famous for its beautiful and unspoiled beaches.

Next port of call is the little island of Poros. Walk along winding streets, among rich pine forest and lemon trees to the top of a panoramic tower clock view of the Peloponnese. Alternatively you may wish to relax at a portside cafe and enjoy the scenery.

Lunch is served in two sittings at 1200 and 1400 (a typical three-course meal: Season Salad, Macaroni Salad, Chicken Fillet with Sauce, Rice and Broccoli, Orange Cake Bavaroise, Season Fruits, and other choice meals)

Our final port will be at Hydra. Enjoy one of the most cosmopolitan of Greek islands. The favourite of the international jet-set and an artist retreat dotted with art galleries, its narrow picturesque streets (no cars allowed on the island), white washed houses, stores of folklore art and jewellery, local delicacies, crystal waters and multiple cliff face views justly make this island a jewel of the Aegean Sea. It is ideal for shopping, swimming and photograph taking.

At 0500 pm we begin the return trip to Trocadero, Athens. Passengers are invited to the main lounge to enjoy our international live orchestra and local Greek folk dances.
